Dear Journalist Friends,

Please accept our heartfelt greetings and welcome on behalf of Bangladesh Hindu Buddhist Christian Unity Council, a human rights organization opposing religious discrimination. We sincerely thank you all for responding to our call and for being present at today's press conference.

Ongoing Communal Violence

Dear Members of the Press,

As you are aware, for more than two decades, we have been presenting before you, year after year, the overall picture of communal violence in Bangladesh. Continuing this tradition, we previously presented the communal situation covering the period from 4 August 2024, one day before the political change, until December of that year. That report mentioned a total of 2,184 incidents of communal violence across the countryduring that period. In early2025, thesefindings werealso published and disseminated through the United Nations fact-finding report.

Bangladesh Hindu Buddhist Christian Unity Council has prepared a partial overview of incidents of communal violence published in national newspapers and various media outlets over the past year, from January to December 2025. According to this overview, the total number of communal violence incidents stands at 522. Among these are: 61 incidents of murder (with 66 victims killed); 28 incidents of violence against women, including rape and gang rape; 95 incidents involving attacks on places of worship, idol vandalism, looting, and arson; 21 incidents of occupation or attempted occupation of land belonging to places of worship; 102 incidents of attacks, vandalism, looting, and arson targeting homes and business establishments; 38 incidents of abduction, extortion demands, and torture; 47 incidents involving attacks, death threats, and torture; 36 individuals subjected to torture and arrest on allegations of so-called religious blasphemy; 66 incidents of forcible occupation of homes, land, and business establishments; and 29 other incidents.

Dear Journalist Friends,

On the other hand, regarding violence involving minorities in Bangladesh, it was recentlystated through a Facebook post by the Honorable Chief Adviser on 19 January that, based on the progress of investigations nationwide, a total of 645 incidents were identified in 2025, of which 71 incidents were found to contain communal elements. The remaining 574 incidents were claimed to be non-communal. The post further stated that among the 71 communal incidents, there were 38 incidents of temple vandalism, 1 incident of theft at a temple, 8 incidents of arson at temples, 23 incidents involving threats to vandalize idols, damage within the premises of places of worship, and Facebook posts, and 1 incident of murder.It was also mentioned in the post that among the 574 incidents claimed to have no communal elements, there were 51 incidents related to neighbour disputes, 23 land-related disputes, 106 thefts, 26 incidents arising from previous enmity, 58 incidents of rape, 172 incidents of unnatural deaths, and the remaining 138 incidents due to other causes. From the Chief Adviser's post listing 71 communal incidents, it appears that except for incidents occurring at temples and within the premises of places of worship, no other incidents are considered communal in nature. Even among the 173 deaths officially acknowledged by the government, only 1 has been recognised as a communal killing, while the remaining 172 have been categorized as unnatural deaths.

It is further noteworthy that among the widely discussed murders of last year such as the killing of Animesh Sarkar in Ashashuni of Satkhira and hanging his body from a tree; the throat-slitting murder of a van driver named Sukumar in Lalpur of Natore; the hacking to death of gold trader Dilip Das in front of his wife in Ashulia of Savar; the suffocation killing of Piyas Majumder in Kotalipara of Gopalganj; the beatingto death of Bhobesh ChandraRoyin Biral of Dinajpur; the brutal hackingmurder of Subrata Das in Subarnachar of Noakhali; the brutal killing of indigenous youth Shubho Soren in Nawabganj of Dinajpur; the merciless killing of Dipu Chandra Das by beating and burning on false allegations of religious blasphemy in Bhaluka of Mymensingh and the shooting death of Bajendra Biswas; the brutal murder of fish trader Utpal Sarkar in Saltha of Faridpur; the shooting death of gold trader Prantosh Sarkar in Narsingdi; the lynching death of Amrit Mondol in Pangsha of Rajbari; the throat-slitting murder of freedom fighter Jogesh Chandra Roy and his wife Subarna Roy in Taraganj of Rangpur; the setting of fire to five Hindu and Buddhist households by locking doors from outside in Raozan of Chattogram; and the arson attacks on five Hindu homes in Pirojpur Sadar—are these not incidents of communal violence? These killings have already been identified as communal murders by national and international media, and human rights organizations have issued statements on these incidents at various times.

We wish to state in unequivocal terms: Does Nobel Peace Prize laureate Professor Dr. Muhammad Yunus intend to redefine "communalism" in a new way, suggesting that except for violence occurring solely at temples or within the premises of places of worship, no other incidents taking place in society and the state constitute communal violence?

Among the 173 deaths mentioned above, only 1 murder has been identified by the government as a "communal killing." Even 58 Hindu women were victims of rape during this period, and these incidents have also been identified by the government as non-communal. We strongly condemn and protest against such an absurd definition of communalism.

It should be noted that the current government has consistently denied the ongoing communal violence and, at times, has attempted to divert the issue of "communal violence" through irrational explanations in order to mislead both national and international communities. However, national and international human rights organizations and media outlets have, at various times, published reports on this issue and informed the public of the real situation.

By branding the international Hindu religious organization ISKCON as "terrorist," the principal of Pundarik Dham in Hathazari, Chattogram, Prabhu Chinmoy Krishna Das Brahmachari, has been sent to prison on false charges in multiple cases includingsedition and murder, and mock trials in several of these cases have already begun. Demands to ban ISKCON have also been raised by certain identified quarters.

By implicating them in multiple false and harassing cases, several leaders of the Unity Council— including its General Secretary and a prominent human rights movement leader of the minority communities, eminent lawyer Advocate Rana Dasgupta have been forced to stay away from normal life. From today's press conference, we demand the withdrawal of all false cases filed against minority leaders prior to the election and the unconditional release of those who are currently imprisoned on fabricated charges.

The Upcoming Thirteenth National Parliamentary Election

Dear Brothers and Sisters of the Press,

Only 14 days remain until the Thirteenth National Parliamentary Election scheduled to be held on 12 February 2026. As in the previous year, ongoing communal violence still persists. Based on information collected up to 27 January 2026, that is, up to the day before yesterday, a total of 42 incidents have occurred so far. Among these are 11 incidents of murder, 1 incident of rape, 9 incidents of attacks and looting at temples and churches, and 21 incidents involving attacks and looting of homes and business establishments, land grabbing, and other incidents.

At present, amid a frightening situation prevailing in the minds of minority communities due to the aforementioned reasons, and while mob violence continues, the Thirteenth National Parliamentary Election is set to be held on 12 February. Across the country, religious and ethnic minorities and indigenous communities especially women and young men and women, are living in constant fear and anxiety. Minority businesspersons are unable to conduct their businesses normally from their own establishments. In various regions of the country, members of minority communities particularly students, young men and women, and people of all genders, are being compelled to undergo internal displacement, considering it to be safer.

Regardless of race, religion, ethnicity, or caste, there remain many challenges to holding an inclusive election with the spontaneous participation of all. This is because hateful rhetoric by communal groups and hatred and violence against those with differing opinions due to differences in religious beliefs are not only destroying communal harmony, but such provocative statements are also inflicting religious harm upon religious and ethnic minorities and marginalized communities. As a result, an extreme level of fear and anxiety is being created among minority men and women, adolescents, and children. Such hate-filled and provocative rhetoric and communal violence are, in effect, creating communal divisions, which is extremely alarming and condemnable. Due to the continuous occurrence of these communal violent incidents, religious and ethnic minorities and indigenous communities across the country are not only outraged, but are also deeply fearful and anxious about their future in their own homeland. In such a situation, neither the government, the administration, the Election Commission, nor political parties have been able to inspire any hope or confidence among them. In the upcoming election, minority communities areeager to exercise theircivicrights through voting, yet their fears and anxieties regarding their lives, livelihoods, property, and dignity have by no means been alleviated, which may discourage them from voting. They cannot be blamed for this under any circumstances.

Responsibility for this must be borne by the government, the administration, the Election Commission, and political parties. From today's press conference, we call upon the Election Commission and all relevant authorities to take firm action to bring about an immediate change in this undesirable situation.

Most members of minority communities have consistently contested elections, participated in election campaigns, and voted in favor of non-communal political forces. At the present time, this has become an outright challenge.

In this national parliamentary election, "Yes" and "No" votes have been introduced in the name of a referendum, through which secularism has been excluded from being declared a fundamental principle of state governance. The government and the Election Commission are directly campaigning in favor of this, which we consider to be sorrowful, unfortunate, and clearly biased. We further believe that the Constitution of a non-communal, secular, and discrimination-free Bangladesh, based on the hopes and aspirations of seventy-five million people at the time and the dreams of thirty million martyrs achieved through the Liberation War is now facing a serious challenge. We believe this will stand as an obstacle to minoritycommunities obtaining equal rights as citizens of Bangladesh. In this situation, ensuring that minority communities can safely go to polling centres and cast their votes freely is a major challenge.

No specific initiatives have so far been observed on the part of the government and the Election Commission to create a safe environment and ensure protection particularly for religious and ethnic minorities and indigenous communities during the pre-election, election period, and post-election phases.

Therefore, from today's press conference, the Unity Council places the following clear demands before the Election Commission and the government:

1. We strongly demand that the Election Commission create a level playing field and foster a positive environment so that religious and ethnic minority voters can go to polling centres without obstruction, face no barriers in contesting elections, and enjoy equal opportunities to participate in election campaigns;
2. The use of religion and communalism in election campaigns must be prohibited. If anycandidate or party uses religion or communalism in the election, provisions for punishment must be enforced;
3. An environment suitable for fearless and unobstructed voting by minority and indigenous communities in the upcoming Thirteenth National Parliamentary Election must be ensured. If necessary, their security should be guaranteed through the deployment of the armed forces;
4. In order to ensure the security of religious and ethnic minorities and maintain public safety and law and order during the pre- and post-election periods, minority-dominated areas should be identified as "high-risk" areas, with the deployment of police, Ansar, and the arrangement of regular patrols by the Army, RAB, and BGB. We further strongly demand the formation of a "Monitoring Cell" for regular oversight;
5. All measures taken by the Election Commission to ensure minority security should be comprehensively communicated to Deputy Commissioners, Superintendents of Police, all members of election-related law enforcement agencies, leaders of political parties and alliances, election candidates, and supporters of candidates. These measures should also be broadcast on radio and television for public awareness;

6. All religious places of worship such as mosques, temples, pagodas, and churches must be prohibited from being used for election campaigning;

7. Religious hate speech, statements, the spread of false rumors, or any such propaganda should be treated as punishable offenses under Sections 2(b)(ra) and 2(b)(rra) of the Special Powers Act as "prejudicial acts" or "harmful activities," and appropriate punitive measures should be taken. At the same time, immediate steps should be taken to cancel the candidacy of those responsible.

We wish to place complete hope and trust in the Election Commission and the government. It is also true that in the past, despite placing our trust, we have been repeatedly disappointed. We now wish to place our hope and confidence in the current government and the Election Commission that we will no longer be thrown into the quicksand of such disappointment in the future.

Dear Journalist Friends,

Considering the prevailing situation, we place the following demands before all political parties, urging them to include these points in their respective election manifestos and campaigns:

a. Immediate steps must be taken to ensure the overall security of religious and ethnic minorities and indigenous communities by recognizing them as "more vulnerable populations," and a zero-tolerance policy against perpetrators of communal violence must be declared;

b. A public commitment must be made, based on consensus among participating political parties and contesting candidates, that minority voters will not be harassed, oppressed, or tortured by attaching various "tags" during the pre- and post-election periods;

c. A commitment must be made to build a non-communal, secular, discrimination-free, and humane state to protect the overall interests and rights of religious and ethnic minorities and indigenous communities, and to achieve an inclusive society, a participatory state system, and a democratic transition;

d. To protect the interests and existence of religious minorities, the long-standing demands of minority communities outlined below must be included in the election manifesto for immediate implementation eight (8) demands in total:

1. Enactment of a Minority Protection Act;

2. Establishment of a National Minority Commission and a Ministry for Minority Affairs;

3. Removal of all bureaucratic obstacles to the proper implementation of the Vested Property Return Act and the immediate restitution of ownership and possession of land to victims in accordance with tribunal verdicts;

4. As a result of continuous persecution, oppression, and discrimination over the past seven decades, religious minority communities have shifted from "progressive communities" to "backward communities." In light of Article 28(4) of the existing Constitution, to constitutionallyensure adequate representation of religious and ethnic minorities in the National Parliament of Bangladesh, sixty (60) parliamentary seats should be designated and reserved for minorities to be elected directly by minority voters;

5. Enactment of a law to protect Devottor (deity-dedicated) property;

6. Enactment of an Anti-Discrimination Act, along with ensuring proportional participation and representation of minority communities at all levels, including all elected bodies and state institutions, as well as the police and armed forces;

7. Proper implementation of the Chittagong Hill Tracts Accord and effective enforcement of the three Hill District Council Acts and the Chittagong Hill Tracts Regional Council Act, and the establishment of a separate Land Commission for indigenous peoples of the plains;

8. To further encourage the religious observance of all minority religious communities, in addition to existing government holidays, declaration of government holidays as follows: three (3) days for the Hindu community from Ashtami to Dashami during Sharadiya Durga Puja, one (1) day for the Buddhist communityon Prabarana Purnima, and one (1) day for the Christian community on Easter Sunday. In addition, religious trusts should be abolished and transformed into foundations.

Methodology

This report records incidents of persecution and oppression against religious-ethnic minorities in Bangladesh from January 1, 2025, to December 31, 2025. Data collection focused on systematically monitoring and archiving reports from national and local print newspapers (e.g., Prothom Alo, Kaler Kantho, Dainik Inqilab, Bangladesh Protidin, Jugantor) and credible online news portals (e.g., bdnews24.com, Bangla Tribune, Dhaka Post, and regional outlets). Every entry cites the original source(s) and publication date(s) for transparency and verification.

Where media coverage was sparse or needed corroboration, we supplemented data through direct field engagement. This included contacting victims, their families, local community leaders, or eyewitnesses to verify details, provide context, and ensure accuracy.

Only incidents backed by verifiable evidence from media or field sources were included. We cross-referenced multiple sources, when possible, to uphold reliability and objectivity. Note that the report is not exhaustive, as some cases may go unreported due to fear, access issues, or media constraints.

প্রেস বিজ্ঞপ্তি

সাম্প্রদায়িক সহিংসতা তীব্রতর আকারে অব্যাহত থাকায়
সংখ্যালঘু জনগোষ্ঠী শঙ্কিত : ঐক্য পরিষদ

প্রস্তাবিত জাতীয় সংসদ নির্বাচনের দিন যতই ঘনিয়ে আসছে ততই সাম্প্রদায়িক সহিংসতা উদ্বেগজনকভাবে বেড়ে চলেছে। গত ডিসেম্বর মাসে কমপক্ষে সহিংসতার ঘটনা ঘটেছে ৩১টি। এর মধ্যে হত্যা ১০টি, চুরি ও ডাকাতি ১০টি, বাড়িঘর-ব্যবসা প্রতিষ্ঠান ভাঙচুর ও জমিজমা দখল, লুটপাট ও অগ্নিসংযোগ ২৩টি। ধর্মীয় অবমাননা ও ধর্ম পালনের মিথ্যা অভিযোগে আটক ও নির্যাতন ৪টি, ধর্ষণ চেষ্টা ১টি, দৈহিক নির্যাতন ৩টি।

চলতি বছরের জানুয়ারি মাসের প্রথম সপ্তাহেও সহিংসতার ধারা অব্যাহত রয়েছে। এর মধ্যে ২ জানুয়ারি লক্ষ্মীপুরের রামগতিতে সত্তরোর্ধ্ব নগেন্দ্র সাহার দায়ের করা জমিজমা সংক্রান্ত মামলা তুলে নিতে অস্বীকৃতি জানানোয় তাঁকে কুপিয়ে ও শরীরে আগুন দিয়ে ব্যবসায়ী ফোরকান চন্দ্র সাহাকে হত্যা করা হয়েছে। একই দিন ভোরে চট্টগ্রামের বোয়ালখালী উপজেলার আধুনিক ইউনিভার্সের চার নম্বর ওয়ার্ডের মিলন দাসের বাড়ির সবাইকে জিম্মি করে সেখানে ডাকাতি করা হয়েছে। একই রকমের ঘটনা ঘটেছে একই দিন কুমিল্লার হোমনার সাধু দাসের ঘরে যেখান থেকে ১০ ভরি স্বর্ণালংকার, ১২ ভরি রুপা ও ২০ হাজার টাকা লুট করে নেয়া হয়েছে। ৪ জানুয়ারি ৬৩ শোভার নামে এক বর্ষ ব্যবসায়ীকে মুখ বেঁধে তার দোকান থেকে প্রায় ৩০ ভরি স্বর্ণালংকার লুট করা হয়েছে। একই দিন ঝিনাইদহের আদিনগরে ৪০ বছরের এক হিন্দু বিধবা নারীকে ধর্ষণ করে তাকে গায়ের সাথে বেঁধে মাথার চুল কেটে নিয়ে নির্যাতন করা হয়েছে। কুড়িগ্রামের জেলা প্রশাসক ও রিটার্নিং অফিসার হিসেবে দায়িত্বপ্রাপ্ত অগ্রাধিকার দেশবাসীর নির্বাচন সংশ্লিষ্ট যথাযথ দায়িত্ব পালনের আবহে তার বিরুদ্ধে ফ্যাসিস্ট সরকারের দোসর ও ইসলামের সদস্যের ট্যাগ লাগিয়ে তাকে তার দায়িত্ব থেকে অপসারণের দাবি তুলেছে ধর্মীয় দুর্বৃত্তরা। একই দিন নিলাফামারীর সৈয়দপুর উপজেলার পাড়েরা গ্রামের সন্তোষ কুমার রায়ের বাড়িতে চাঁদাবাজি করতে গিয়ে স্থানীয় এলাকাবাসী ও তার সহযোগী মস্তফুল আলম পুলিশের হাতে আটক হয়েছে। গতকাল ৫ জানুয়ারি যশোরের মনিরামপুরের বরফকল ব্যবসায়ী ৩৭ বছর বয়স্ক হাজী প্রকাশ বৈরাগীকে দুর্বৃত্তরা দল ব্যবসা প্রতিষ্ঠান থেকে ডেকে নিয়ে প্রকাশ্যে গুলি করে ও গলা কেটে হত্যা করেছে। একই দিন নরসিংদীর পলাশে মুদী দোকানী মনি চক্রবর্তীকে দুর্বৃত্তরা দোকানে নির্মমভাবে হত্যা করেছে দুষ্কৃতকারীরা। এরকম লোমহর্ষক ঘটনা এরই মধ্যে আরো অনেক ঘটেছে সারা দেশে যার সম্পূর্ণ তথ্য এখনো পাওয়া যায়নি।

বাংলাদেশ হিন্দু বৌদ্ধ খ্রিস্টান ঐক্য পরিষদের কেন্দ্রীয় কমিটি সাম্প্রদায়িক সহিংসতার তীব্রতায় গভীর ক্ষোভ, উদ্বেগ ও তীব্র নিন্দা প্রকাশ করে বলেছে এসব ঘটনায় সারা দেশের সংখ্যালঘু জনগোষ্ঠী অবিশ্বাসের আঁধারে আশঙ্কায় ভয়ে তীব্র হয়ে পড়েছে। আগামী সংসদ নির্বাচনে নিরপেক্ষ, নির্বিঘ্নে ভোটদানে সংখ্যালঘুরা হুমকিমধ্যে শঙ্কিত হয়ে পড়েছে। পরিষদ মনে করে আগামী নির্বাচনে সহযোদের প্রার্থীকে ভোটদানে ভোরপূর্বক বিরত রাখার জন্যে সাম্প্রদায়িক দুর্বৃত্তমহল এসব ঘৃণ্য কার্যকলাপ অব্যাহতভাবে সারা দেশে চালিয়ে যাচ্ছে। অনতিবিলম্বে তা রোধে সরকার ও নির্বাচন কমিশনের প্রতি পরিষদ জোর দাবি জানিয়েছে।

Minority Communities in Fear
As Communal Violence Continues to Escalate: Oikya Parishad

As the day of the 13th National Parliamentary Election draws closer, communal violence is increasing at an alarming rate. In the month of December alone, at least 51 incidents of violence occurred. These include 10 murders, 10 incidents of theft and robbery, 23 cases of occupation, looting and arson involving homes, business establishments, temples and land, 4 cases of detention and torture on false allegations of religious blasphemy and being agents of the RAW, 1 attempted rape, and 3 incidents of physical assault.

The trend of violence has continued into the first week of January this year. On 2 January, paddy crops on 96 decimals of land belonging to Satyaranjan Das were set on fire in Rangpati, Lalolmirpur. On 3 January, businessman Khokon Chandra Das was brutally murdered in Shariatpur after being hacked and set on fire. Early the same morning, a robbery was carried out at the house of Milan Das in Ward No. 4 of Arnachia Union under Boalkhali Upazila of Chattogram, where all family members were taken hostage. A similar incident occurred on the same day at the house of Sanu Das in Horina, Cumilla, from where 10 bhori of gold ornaments, 12 bhori of silver, and cash amounting to Tk 20,000 were looted.

On 4 January, a gold trader named Shubho Poddar was tied up and approximately 30 bhori of gold ornaments were looted from his shop. On the same day, a 40-year-old Hindu widowed woman was raped in Kaliganj, Jhenaidah; she was tied to a tree, her head was shaved, and she was subjected to severe torture. Religious extremist miscreants demanded the removal of Anuprasna Debnath, the Deputy Commissioner of Kurigram and the Returning Officer, by branding her as an ally of a fascist government and a member of ISKCON for properly performing her election-related duties. On the same day, local NCP leader M. A. Tahir and his associate Manjurul Alam were arrested by police while attempting extortion at the house of Santosh Kumar Roy in Baroya village under Bochaganj Upazila of Dinajpur.

Yesterday, 5 January, Rona Pratap Bairagi, a 37-year-old ice factory businessman from Moniarapur, Jashore, was called out of his business premises and brutally murdered in public by criminals through gunfire and throat-slitting. On the same day, Moni Chakraborty, a grocery shop owner in Palash, Narsingdi, was stabbed to death in a brutal manner by miscreants. Many more such horrifying incidents have already taken place across the country, the complete details of which are yet to be obtained.

The Central Committee of the Bangladesh Hindu Buddhist Christian Oikya Parishad, expressing deep anger, concern, and strong condemnation over the intensity of communal violence, stated that minority communities across the country are gripped by fear and uncertainty about the future. Minorities have already become apprehensive about being able to cast their votes freely and without obstruction in the upcoming parliamentary election. The Parishad believes that communal miscreants are continuously carrying out these heinous acts nationwide in order to forcibly prevent minorities from voting for their preferred candidates in the next election. The Parishad strongly urges the Government and the Election Commission to take immediate and effective measures to stop these acts.

Dear Secretary Rubio:

Recent reports about the murder of Hindu minorities in Bangladesh raise serious concerns about the misuse of blasphemy laws.

Please make the appropriate officials available to brief me regarding the safety of religious minorities in Bangladesh, so that I may report back to my Bangladeshi-American constituents and address their concerns.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely

STATEMENT CONDEMNING THE MOB KILLING OF DIPU CHANDRA DAS AND THE PERSECUTION OF HINDUS IN BANGLADESH

I am deeply disturbed by the ongoing violence against Bangladesh's Hindu minority, exemplified most recently by the brutal lynching of Hindu Bangladeshi Dipu Chandra Das, who was just 25 years old. A mob beat him, set him ablaze, and left his body on a highway. Authorities have reportedly arrested twelve individuals in connection with the horrific crime.

This incident is part of a troubling pattern of religious persecution and targeted violence against religious minorities in Bangladesh. The Bangladesh Hindu Buddhist Christian Unity Council documented 2,442 incidents of violence against minorities and over 150 temples vandalized from August 2024 to July 2025.

From Queens to countries across the globe, we all share in the fear, pain, and uncertainty faced by Hindus in Bangladesh. We stand in solidarity with Bangladesh's Hindu community and for human rights and religious freedom globally.
